Join us to visit a land conservation success story made possible by the Department of Energy & Environmental Protection's Open Space & Watershed Land Acquisition Program (OSWA) - funded by the Community Investment Act - and other local investments. Bull Hill is an expansive, unbroken, forested lot that runs along the border between Thompson and Woodstock and is a focus area for protection by the Wyndham Land Trust.

Enjoy a walk exploring the site, and talk with State legislators, other elected officials, land trust representatives, and community leaders about our state, regional, and local conservation priorities. The event is bipartisan, free, and open to land trust members and guests. Inclement weather cancels. Please RSVP to info@wyndhamlandtrust.org or call and leave a message at 860 963 2090.

CLCC advocates for land conservation, stewardship and funding, and works to ensure the long-term strength and viability of the land conservation community statewide.
